

And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

¹I love you, O LORD, my strength.

²*The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer,
my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge,
my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.*

³I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
and I am saved from my enemies.

³⁰*This God—his way is perfect;
the word of the LORD proves true;
he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him.*

³¹For who is God, but the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?

²²*But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.*

²³Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. ²⁴So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith.

²⁵*But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, ²⁶for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith.*

²⁷For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

⁴⁹*For this I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations, and sing to your name.*

Prayer Meeting, 6:00pm

Most people today do not know the joy and peace that comes from living by faith. Outside of the church, there is much strange thinking about the subject of faith. We are living in an age when it is assumed that faith means nothing in the realities of contemporary life. It is a greater tragedy when the believer in passivity fails to trust God to the point of personal and active involvement in the life of faith.
