

Advice to Abstainers—1 Peter 2:11-12
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

Peter encourages those believers spread abroad in the world to “abstain from fleshly lusts.” But what advice does he offer to these “abstainers”? By analyzing the terms surrounding this imperative, we can discern three pieces of advice that Peter would offer those who travel through a world of temptation:

1. Remember who you are.
2. Beware the danger of fleshly lusts.
3. Be cognizant of the world around you.
