The Affections of a Genuine Believer—1 Peter 1:8 Greg Stiekes, Pastor

What marks the genuineness of a believer's faith in Christ? In this text, Peter, commending the true faith of persecuted Christians, does not note their words or their actions, but their affections. Here we discern that the affections of a genuine believer are marked by at least two qualities:

1. Inexplicable Love.

....whom having not seen you love.

2. Inexpressible Joy.

...you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory.
