

The Unknowable Mind of the Lord – Isaiah 55:6-13
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

As believers in Christ, we serve and worship God whose knowledge and wisdom utterly transcends our own. This means that often we are puzzled by complicated questions to which God alone knows the answer. How are we to live our lives despite our inability to reason like God? This text suggests three ways:

1. We must seek God (55:6-7).

Seeking God involves:

A. Prayer/Fellowship (v. 6)

B. Confession/Obedience (v. 7a)

C. Confidence/Faith (v. 7b)

2. We must yield to God (55:10-11).

3. We must rest in God (55:12-13).
