

Entering into God's Sabbath Rest – Hebrews 3:6b-4:13

Greg Stiekes, Pastor

Having highlighted the faithfulness of Jesus in Hebrews 3:1-6, the author calls the church itself to faithfulness in 3:7-4:13. Just as the Israelites had Moses for an example of faithfulness in the wilderness, so we have a supreme example of faithfulness in Christ. We are exhorted, therefore, to follow Christ's example and so enter into God's Sabbath Rest. The author offers us both a warning and a promise:

1. A Warning to Remain Faithful (3:7-19)
 - A. The character of a faithless heart (3:12)

 - B. The consequence of a faithless heart (3:16-18)

 - C. The remedy for a faithless heart (3:12-15)

Next Lord's Day:

2. A Promise of Sabbath Rest (4:1-13)
