

Pressing on to Perfection – Heb. 5:11-6:20

Greg Stiekes, Pastor

Again the author of Hebrews diverges from his main topic in order to exhort his readers. As Jesus was “perfected” because He “learned obedience” (5:7-10), so must we also hear and obey if we would “go on to perfection” (6:1). Disobedience breeds spiritual immaturity and immaturity breeds apostasy; but our perfection rests in the promise of God through Christ, our High Priest.

1. Disobedience breeds spiritual immaturity (5:11-6:3).
 - a. Maturity is measured by knowledge (5:11-13; 6:1-2).
A mature knowledge of God’s Word means two things:
 - (1) You are able to teach the basics to others.

 - (2) You know the deeper things for yourself.
 - b. Maturity is measured by discernment (5:14).
2. Spiritual immaturity breeds apostasy (6:4-8).
3. Perfection is based upon the promise of God (6:9-20).
