

The Future Restoration of God's People Today from Ephesians 1-2
Pastor Greg Stiekes

As believers in Christ we long for the future promise that what was shattered in the Fall will be perfectly restored in the Eternal State. But Paul tells us that this promise is being fulfilled already! Because of the work of Christ, our relationship with God and with others who know God has been made whole, and we are called therefore to manifest these healed relationships through love and fidelity both to God and to one another in the body.

1. God has already restored our relationship with Him (Eph 1:7–10).
2. God has already restored our relationship with one another (Eph 2:11–22).
3. “Therefore” (Eph 4:1).
