

FAITH AND SEPARATION—HEBREWS 11:29–31
Pastor Greg Stiekes

The drowning of the Egyptians and the destruction of Jericho highlight a reality which has been present throughout the entire chapter: those who identify with God through faith stand in remarkable contrast to those who do not. Living in the real world means that we should notice a distinct difference between our lives and the lives of those around us. This text in particular highlights at least three ways we are unique:

1. We are unique in our confidence.
2. We are unique in our destiny.
3. We are unique in our obedience.
