

JESUS' MISSION PROGRAM—LUKE 4:16–21
Greg Stiekes

In the synagogue of his hometown of Nazareth, Jesus launches his public ministry by declaring his mission: to rescue hopelessly defeated outsiders by offering them genuine release from their situation—for the ultimate Jubilee has come! Jesus was sent by the Father and anointed by the Holy Spirit to fulfill the mission detailed in Isaiah 61:1–2a, seeking to save four specific kinds of desperate people:

Last Week:

1. Those who are bankrupt spiritually to proclaim good news to the poor 2. Those who are bound morally to proclaim liberty to the captives
3. Those who are blind intellectually
[to proclaim] recovering of sight to the blind

Today

4. Those who are broken emotionally to set at liberty those who are oppressed
