

Consider Your Ways (Haggai 1:5).

1. Was my relationship with God more intimate in 2014 than 2013?
2. Can I honestly say that my life glorified God in 2014?
3. What one object, activity or thing could I sacrifice in the New Year that would cause my relationship with the Lord to be more intimate?
4. What one thing could I do this year to increase my enjoyment of God?
5. What would I like to see God do in my life in the coming year?
6. What is the most important thing that could take place in my life that would improve the quality of my family in the coming year?
7. How might I be more effective in strengthening the ministry of my church this year?
8. Whose salvation should I be praying fervently for in the New Year?
9. What is the biggest time-waster in my life and what should I do about it this year?
10. What is it that I consider more important than my relationship with God?
11. Which spiritual discipline would I like to see more fully developed in the coming year?
12. What one thing could I do to improve my prayer life in the coming year?
13. What is the one thing that I plan to do this year that will matter most ten years from now?
14. What is the one thing that I plan to do this year that will matter most in eternity?
15. What is the most important decision I should be making in the New Year?
16. What needs to be simplified in my life in order to be more productive spiritually?
17. What person or persons should I be more burdened to help and encourage in the coming year?
18. Are there any habits that should be eliminated in my life in the New Year?
19. What is the most important financial goal that I should strive toward in the New Year?
20. What ministry should I more involve myself in order to accomplish God's will in my life in the New Year?
