Psalm 44:1-6, 23, 26

1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, the deeds You did in their days, in days of old:

2 You drove out the nations with Your hand, but them You planted; You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.

3 For they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them; but it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance, because You favored them.

4 You are my King, O God; command victories for Jacob.

5 Through You we will push down our enemies; through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow, nor shall my sword save me. . . .

23 Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord? Arise! Do not cast us off forever. . . .

26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for Your mercies' sake.

THANKSGIVING FOR THE LORD'S SUPPER

from 1 CORINTHIANS 11:23-29

Ron Benzing

Some denominations who call the Lord's Supper the Eucharist do so because the Greek verb used in I Corinthians 11 passage is eucharisteo and means to give thanks. When we come to the Communion Service it is certainly a time to offer thanks to God for the perfect and finished work of Christ. I would suggest that we not only express thanks to God at His table, but also for the event itself. What a privilege for us to be invited to join Him at His table.

1. It is Historical (v23). I received of the Lord...delivered unto you

A. Successive events.

B. Spiritual meanings.

2. It is a Memorial (vv24-25). Take eat, this is My body broken for you, this do in remembrance of Me... the new covenant in my blood, this do in remembrance of Me.

A. Concerning the Person of Jesus Christ.

B. Concerning our participation with Christ and one another.

3. It is Evangelical (v26). Ye do show the Lord's death til He come

A. Proclamation of the Gospel.

B. Prophetic of God's plan. until He comes
