I love the LORD, because he has heard

†*Because he inclined his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.*

†*The snares of death encompassed me;
the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me;
I suffered distress and anguish.*

†*Then I called on the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, I pray, deliver my soul!"*

†*Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
our God is merciful.*

†*The LORD preserves the simple;
when I was brought low, he saved me.*

†*Return, O my soul, to your rest;
for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.*

†*What shall I render to the LORD
for all his benefits to me?*

†*I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD,*

†*I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.*

When we consider giving thanks to God, there are several words that may come to mind, such as praise, worship, and sing. We probably do not think of the word sacrifice. Yet this is precisely the word the writer of Hebrews uses when he calls upon us to “offer up a sacrifice of praise to God.” Why does he use the expression sacrifice of praise? And how do we obey this call as we walk with the Lord?

1. The meaning of this “sacrifice.”

2. The call to offer this “sacrifice.”
