

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock.
You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might and come to save us! Psalm 80:1-2

O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.

² *Out of the mouth of babies and infants,
you have established strength because of your foes,
to still the enemy and the avenger.*

³ When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

⁴ *what is man that you are mindful of him,
and the son of man that you care for him?*

⁵ Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly being and crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶ *You have given him dominion over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet,*

⁷ all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
⁸ the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

⁹ *O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!*

This week be in much prayer for decisions being made by the church body as it relates to the pastoral search

On Palm Sunday, we see, in the scripture, what we refer to as the Triumphal Entry. Jesus riding into Jerusalem on the back of a borrowed donkey's colt that had never been ridden before. The masses, religious leaders and the disciples all had different perceptions as to why this was taking place. The purpose of Jesus was far different than all of their perceptions. What about our perception? What is the significance of Christ moving toward Calvary's Cross for us today?
