<sup>17</sup> and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?'

<sup>18</sup> And he said, I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

<sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry."

<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'

All Our Days

Psalm 90

Moses wrote this psalm near the end of a long wilderness journey, contemplating the brevity of human life and the eternity of God. His perspective of man's time on earth is summed up in verse 6. In the morning it flourishes, and grows up; in the evening it is cut down, and withers. "HAPPY NEW YEAR," somehow does not appear in that statement.

I. The IMMUTABILITY of God (1-2)

II. The INFIRMITY of man (3-11)

III. The INTERCESSION of Moses (12-17)

Anticipation: God's sustaining grace and guidance in the New Year.

Application: Teach us to number our days, that we may make every day count for eternity.

Q. Why does God save sinners?

A . In His magnificent love and wisdom, God saves believing sinners because He wants great glory for Himself and great good for His people. Isaiah 43:25 "I, even I, am he (God) that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." (Adv. 9 Mission 7)
