

The God Who Redeems – Exodus 6:6-8; 13:2, 11-16
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

In delivering Israel from Egypt, God discloses Himself as the Redeemer of His people. God perpetuates His great redemption by means of a continual commemoration woven into the fabric of Israel's society, pointing ultimately to the "redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom 3:24).

1. God Redeems Israel, His Firstborn (4:22-23; 6:6-8).

God's redemption is marked by several necessary qualities:

2. God Requires Israel to Redeem the Firstborn (13:11-16).

3. God Redeems the World through His Firstborn.
