

Baptism: Affirming Life in Christ—Romans 6:1-4
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

The New Testament demonstrates the believer's baptism to be the first step of obedience in the Christian life. But what is the believer saying when he or she is baptized? Paul's words about the believer's life in Christ in this text reveals two significant statements which baptism affirms:

1. "I died with Christ."

2. "I am alive with Christ."
