

Returning to God – Psalm 61

Greg Stiekes, Pastor

Do you ever feel far away from God, as if, somehow, the closeness you once enjoyed with Him has evaporated, leaving a sense of emptiness or apprehension? In this psalm, David expresses a deep yearning to return to a place of fellowship with God. His confession in these brief verses is like a beacon of hope, helping us to find our way back to that closeness with God we desire to know.

1. David's Longing (1-2).

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

2. David's Anticipation (3-4).

David remembers how God has revealed Himself in the past:

a. A shelter.

b. A fortified tower.

c. A tent.

d. A mother bird.

3. David's Assurance (5-8).

The king shall abide before God forever.
