

One Final Warning – 1 John 5:21
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

“Little children, keep yourselves from idols,” is John’s abrupt ending to his first epistle, offered as a warning to believers who desire to live with confidence in their salvation through Christ. We will understand this parting plea and its significance for us today more fully by examining its three components:

1. The Addressees—Little children
2. The Danger—idols
3. The Imperative—keep yourselves from
