

How Shall We Then Live? Part 6—Hebrews 10:19-36
Greg Stiekes, Pastor

The central message of Hebrews is that Jesus Christ became our great High Priest, entering into the holy presence of the Father by means of His single sacrifice for our sins, making operational the New Covenant blessings which offer forgiveness and reconciliation with God. Beginning in 10:19, however, the author begins to explain what Jesus' priestly work means for us as believers in practical terms. Essentially, the author answers the question, "How shall we then live?"

1. We shall live a life of obedience (10:22-25).
 - A. "Let us" draw near to God (22).
 - B. "Let us" hold fast our confession (23).
 - C. "Let us" encourage one another (24-25).
2. We shall live a life of sobriety (10:26-31).
 - A. Because of the sobering exclusivity of the gospel.
 - B. Because of the sobering problem of sin.
 - C. Because of the sobering reality of the Judgment.
3. We shall live a life of endurance (10:32-36).
