

THREE ASPECTS OF THE LORD'S TABLE (PART 2) from 1 CORINTHIANS

11:17-25

Pastor George Stiekes

It is said that Zacchaeus, as an old man would leave his home in Jericho every morning and walk to the edge of the village for a time of quiet meditation beneath an old tree – the very place where he had first met the Lord.

The Lord's Table is our regular visit to Calvary where in quietness of soul we remember the price Christ paid for our redemption.

1. The Lord's Supper Reveals the Sovereignty Of The Savior
 - A. The Sovereignty of His Presence (10:21).
 - B. The Sovereignty of His Provision (10:21 / 11:20).
 - C. The Sovereignty of His Passion (11:26).
 - D. The Sovereignty of His Purpose (11:29)

2. The Lord's Supper Reflects the Unity of the Spirit
 - A. A Unity of Covenant
 - B. A Unity of Communion (1 Cor 10:16)

3. The Lord's Supper Requires the Purity of the Saints (11:27-29)
 - A. Personal Examination (11:28)

 - B. Purposeful Participation (11:28-29)
