

THE CRUX OF JESUS' MISSION—LUKE 13:31–35

Greg Stiekes

His death for sin and his resurrection were the crux of Jesus' mission. These events were the fixed point in time that Jesus moved toward for his whole ministry, especially on his journey to Jerusalem where he would declare himself to be king. As we follow Jesus on this journey to the cross and beyond, we realize that there are several reasons his mission was so urgent to him:

1. Jesus Came to Rescue Lost Humanity.

2. Jesus Came to Honor the Father.

3. Jesus Came to Fulfill the Scriptures.
